

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD BY L.Y. MIKHEEVA	6
---------------------------------	---

INTRODUCTION	7
--------------------	---

Chapter 1 THE PARTITIONING OF A PERSON'S ASSETS AS A CONSEQUENCE OF INDIVIDUALISM AND A CONDITION FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP TO DEVELOP	14
1.1 Socio-economic determinants of asset partitioning.....	14
1.2 Private capital management as the goal of parties involved in asset partitioning.....	20
1.3 Shielding as an effect of asset partitioning	31
1.4 Legal forms of asset partitioning in Russia and abroad.....	41
1.4.1. Asset partitioning through a legal entity structure	41
1.4.2. Disadvantages of the legal entity as a legal form of asset partitioning for private capital management.....	52
1.4.3. Legal forms of asset partitioning without creating a self-contained legal personality: experience from foreign legal systems.....	61
1.4.3.1. The trust: Anglo-American and international models	63
1.4.3.2. Continental models: the fiducia and German fiduciary management (Treuhand)	75

Chapter 2 CHARACTERISTICS OF THE PERSONAL FOUNDATION: MEETING DEMAND FOR ASSET PARTITIONING AND MANAGEMENT MODELS	85
2.1 Features of some Russian legal forms of asset partitioning through the lens of shielding theory.....	85
2.1.1. Simple partnerships	88
2.1.2. Investment partnerships.....	94
2.1.3. Fiduciary management agreements	94
2.1.4. Unit investment funds.....	97
2.1.5. Personal foundations	99
2.2 The personal foundation under Russian law: correlation with functionally similar foreign legal forms of asset partitioning.....	101
2.3 The development of Russian legislation on personal foundations.....	115
2.4 Personal foundations as a milestone in legislative change regarding forced shares.....	135
2.4.1. The forced share and the testamentary foundation	139
2.4.2. The forced share and the lifetime foundation	142

Chapter 3 MANAGEMENT AND LIABILITY ISSUES IN LEGAL RELATIONS STEMMING FROM INCORPORATION

OF A PERSONAL FOUNDATION	146
3.1 Managing personal foundations: key issues	146
3.1.1. Forming the personal foundation's bodies: a view through the lens of the founder's autonomy of will	146
3.1.2. The agency problem as refracted through the personal foundation.....	154
3.1.3. Strategies for participants in asset-partitioning relations to address the agency problem within personal foundations	159
3.1.3.1. Compensation for losses.....	164
3.1.3.2. Challenging transactions	166
3.2 Protecting creditors' rights where assets are partitioned by transfer to a personal foundation.....	171
3.2.1. Protecting creditors of the founder of a personal foundation.....	171
3.2.1.1. Publicising partitioning	172
3.2.1.2. The personal foundation's subsidiary liability.....	175
3.2.1.3. A personal foundation can be declared sham.....	179
3.2.2. Protecting creditors of the personal foundation.....	184
3.2.3. Protecting creditors of a beneficiary.....	188
 CONCLUSION	 196
 BIBLIOGRAPHY	 201
Laws, regulations and legislative materials of the Russian Federation; international treaties and agreements	201
Non-Russian laws, regulations and official materials	204
Russian Federation court decisions	205
Non-Russian court decisions	206
Monographs, textbooks and commentaries on legislation in Russian	206
Monographs and textbooks in languages other than Russian	212
Articles and collections of academic works in Russian	213
Articles and collections of academic works in languages other than Russian.....	224
Theses and reviews of theses.....	228
Internet resources	230